REFLECTIONS OF '68

GO -O -O -O SPIRIT

With assistance from the spirit committee and the support of the student body, spirit reigned supreme at Clay. Each pep session provided competition between the classes for the traditional spirit jug. Before the Homecoming Game enthusiasm was revealed in the decorations of each homeroom. "Make those tigers purr," was a typical slogan on the Homecoming posters. Spirit was an essential part of Clay academically as well as in sports.

POLYNESIAN PARADISE

Prom co-chairmen, Dianne Dimich and Lesie Kodba, admire Art Heemer's decoration ideas.

This setting served as the entrance to a delightful evening.

"Polynesian Paradise" was the theme for the 1967 Prom held on May 13. The couples danced to Bill Henry's Orchestra. Palm trees decorated the coronation stand where Sally Barber and Jesse Neely were crowned queen and king. Members of the court were: Tany Condi and George Grenert; Becky Fish and Rex Richardes; Marge Lemley and Joe Duncan; Jan Frepan and Doug Deck. Refreshments were served in the cafeteria which was decorated like a garden. The Niles Y.M.C.A. was rented for the after-prom fun where some watched the movie "Diamond Head," some swam, and others enjoyed the music of the Cambridge Five. After many months of hard work by the class of 1968 the Prom was claimed a success.

The thrones awaited the king and queen of the prom.

IT'S CHRISTMAS AT CLAY

Everyone danced to the music of the Velva Tones.

The only formal dance, other than the prom, was the Christmas Dance. Each year the Student Council sponsors the dance. "Frosted Fantasy" was the theme for the dance this year. The gym was transformed into a wintery scene where the trees were covered with snow and presents lay waiting to be opened. Inside the hearth of a red brick fireplace, the Velva Tones played through the evening and kept the dance moving smoothly.

The Christmas tree highlighted the night.

HOMECOMING HIGHLIGHTS

Shelley Amor, Freshman

Pam Nelson, Sophomore

Queen Kathy Hawkins

Stephanie Stroud, Junior

Candy Seniff, Senior

"Roar with spirit and make those Tigers purr" was the theme for the 1967 Homecoming. This theme could be heard and seen throughout the halls and classrooms during the week preceding Homecoming. The annual Homeroom contest was held and all classes participated by decorating their rooms. Adding to the excitement was the bonfire and parade on Thursday, in which all four classes and a majority of the clubs were represented. After the crowning of the queen and her court everyone went to the bonfire where a stuffed Tiger was burned. Spirit remained high throughout the game which was played at Jackson Field. A dance, at the school gym, to the music of The Lord Chamberlins, climaxed a week of hectic preparations.

A Jackson tiger was burned at the Homecoming Bonfire.

MR. IRRESISTIBLE TRADITION

President, Barb McCauley, gives Mr. Irresistible, Don Nelson, a kiss.

Dances have been an annual event at Clay and the Mr. Irresistible Dance added to the tradition. The Invaders provided music and the crowning of the most irresistible boy highlighted the evening. Throughout the day each Y-Teen who talked to a boy was obligated to give that boy a talking ticket which cost her a nickel. The girl who gave out the most tickets was crowned Miss Gabby and the senior girl who best represented her class in Y-Teens was crowned Miss Y-Teen.

Clayites danced to the music of The Invaders.

SADIE HAWKINS CHASE

Dog-patch kids gather in the Meetin' Hall for a dance.

For one night a year Clay changes the American procedure of dating. For the annual Sadie Hawkins Dance, the girls take over the responsibilities usually reserved for the boys. She must ask him for the date, provide transportation and pay for tickets and food. March 18, 1967, found Clayites at their "best," dressed in Dog-patch attire. Dressed in blue-jeans and sweat shirts, the couples danced to the music provided by the Invaders. Sue Davis and John Reihl were named Daisy Mae and Little Abner for the evening.

A.F.S. BRINGS MASI TO CLAY

"Just call me Masi."

Masayoshi Ikuma, better known to everyone as Masi, was welcomed by students and teachers as Clay's A.F.S. student. Masi's American home for the past year was with Charlie Clark; in Japan it was in Tokyo, where he went to Kosei-Gakuen High School. His school was much like ours, although he had twelve subjects instead of six, and he attended school on Saturday. At Clay, Masi's classes included U. S. History, English II, Biology I, Algebra-Trigonometry, and Government-Sociology. Masi gave Clayites the opportunity to learn and understand Japanese culture.

Masi is taught a typical American sport by Charlie Clark, his American brother.

'68 MARKED NEW TRADITION

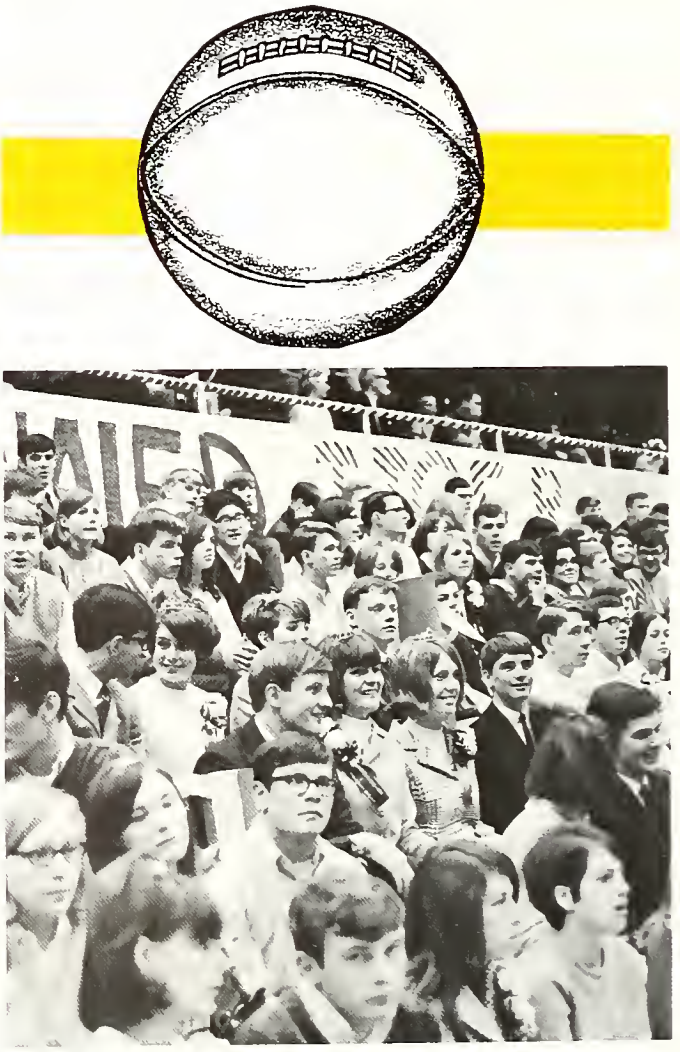
This year marked the beginning of a new tradition for Clayites. Added to Homecoming activities was the initiation of Basketball Homecoming. Chosen by the class of '68, Dianne Dimich, Sue Keeler, Debbie Nosko, Sue Davis, and Cheri Wilson were crowned at the pep session by varsity basketball players. Prior to the varsity game each girl was escorted onto the floor and Sue Keeler was crowned queen to reign over the game and dance. The Knight Raiders provided the music for all Clayites who attended the homecoming dance.



The queen, court, and escorts joined the student body to watch the New Carlisle game.

SENIORS AWARDED HONORS

This year the D.A.R. award was presented to Barb Bowie.

Boys' State representative, Tom Leonakis and Girls' State representative, Dianne Dimich, displayed another talent.

Front: June Miller, 3.67; Dave May, 3.56. Back: Joan Tabacznik, 3.89; Linda Harlan, 3.63; Marilyn Hagerty, 4.00; Debbie Nosko, 3.85; Chuck Schoffner, 3.9; Cindy Shilt, 3.74; Jim Bratina, 3.84; Jay Heckel, 3.59.

Her white thumb aided Sharon Douglass in winning the Betty Crocker award.

REFLECTIONS OF CLASSROOMS

MAIN OFFICE GUIDED FUNCTIONS

"Now you have to admit, that was a funny one."

The administration of Clay High school served as the nerve center of all activities involving students, classes, programs, and projects. Through the combined efforts of Mr. Bert Hodge, Clay's principal for six years, and Mr. Dale Harbaugh assistant principal for nearly three decades, the reputation of Clay remained at a high level. While managing the school effectively, they extended a special interest to the student body and faculty. They were assisted by the secretarial staff headed by Mrs. Cleo Eisbrenner. Mrs. Mildred Claycomb who managed the problems of attendance, Mrs. Maxine Cress who was in charge of accounting fees and the receipts obtained from extracurricular activities, and Mrs. Mary Thomas, Guidance secretary, composed this hard working staff.

"When you're number one, there's got to be a reason."
Mr. Bert Hodge—Principal

"When you're number two, you try harder."
Mr. Dale M. Harbaugh—Assistant Principal

Secretaries: Mrs. Mildred Claycomb, Mrs. Cleo Eisbrenner, Mrs. Maxine Cress, and Mrs. Mary Thomas

GUIDANCE EXPANDED SERVICES

"I really enjoy grading these Betty Crocker tests!"
Mr. Robert Turnock—Counselor

"It says here that Lincoln was a Clay Colonial?"
Miss Patricia Rhodes—Counselor

"I don't think West Point would accept you!"
Mr. James Reinebold—Counselor

The counselors in the Guidance Department provided assistance in solving all problems whether related to personal or school activities. They aided students in choosing their occupations and in selecting colleges when further education was required. The Guidance Department facilities were improved by the conversion of the conference room into a Guidance Resource Center where students could obtain vocational information in their free time. Records and filmstrips were available. Monday nights the students and parents had an opportunity to confer with the counselors. A vocational guidance program was established for interested students to provide them with extensive assistance and to enable them to acquire the benefits of the latest concept in counseling.

EXPERIENCE: THE BEST TEACHER

Experience needed to pursue the field of education was gained by the student teachers through the advice and assistance rendered by their critic teachers. These college seniors added a delightful note to the classes under their supervision.

"It's too bad the ref couldn't be locked up instead."
Mr. Barry Van Slayer—Physical Education

"Somehow I don't seem to be getting through."
Miss Susan Chapman—Social Studies

"This isn't anything like we wrote in college."
Miss Mary Slick—English

"Wow, is this class ever big!"
Miss Carla Horowitz—Languages

ENGLISH—THE WRITE WAY

Every student participated, by requirement, in English classes for three years and received knowledge valuable for understanding and using English. The fourth year of English was available for those who had to meet college entrance requirements. Additional classes, including Dramatics and Journalism II, broadened the extent of the English program. The varied personalities and teaching methods of the English staff gave students a beneficial background of their native language for practical and professional English. Additions to an already qualified staff were Mr. Glen Neely and Mr. Robert Krause. The continuation of the portable book store for students, and the purchase of paperback books for classes provided for excellent reading materials to enrich students' appreciation of literature.

"You're a good boy, but the world's full of them."
Mr. John Mouros—English I

"May I borrow your little black book?"
Mr. Robert Krause—English II, III
Mr. Glen Neely—English I, II

"Happiness is . . . ."
Mrs. Margaret Makielski—English I, II
Miss Eileen O'Brien—English II, Journalism I, II

Mr. Dreves and Mr. Matson smile as another student fails English.
Mr. Fredric Dreves—English I, III
Mr. David Matson—English IV, Drama

"What we have here is a lack of communcation."
Mr. Walter Garrett—English IV-World History, English III

"Silence is golden."
Mr. Bliss Butts—Librarian

"What flavor would you like your Candy Striper's uniform?"
Miss Ruth Yeager—English II, III, Speech

PROGRESSIVE SOCIAL STUDIES

"This is a World War I frying pan."
Mr. Gary Fry—U.S. History, Contemporary Society

"All right, so I goofed . . ."
Mr. Leon DeWitte—Intro. to Social Studies, Gov.-Soc.

"Friends, Colonials, students, lend me your Spears!"
Mr. James Spears—Gov.-Soc., Gov. Ec.-International Relations
Mr. Richard Thompson—World History

"Ah-hem."
Mr. Milton Harke—Intro. to Social Studies

The Social Studies Department required students to participate in many of its courses. An experimental course, combining World Literature and World History, under the instruction of Mr. Thompson and Mr. Garrett, was offered to Seniors as a two-hour class. Selected students participated in the fourth annual U.N. Assembly this year. The knowledge and experience acquired from these classes and from activities associated with them, gave Clayites a better understanding of our present and past society.

Mr. John Stinson—U.S. History

"Deep knee bends: Ready, one, two, three, four.
Mr. Meredith Huston—Intro. to Social Studies

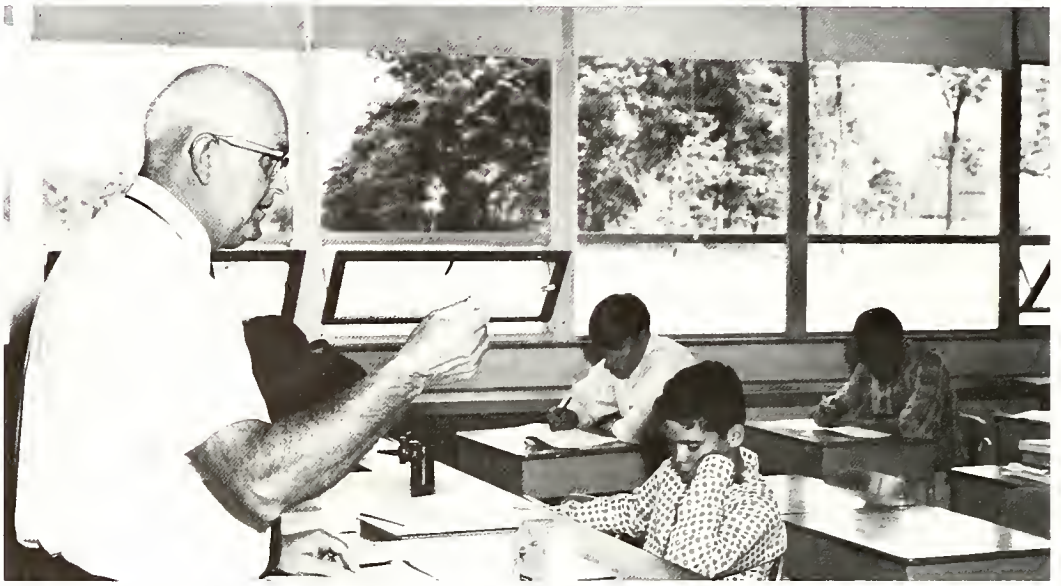
MATH CURRICULUM IMPROVED



Zap! "I'll grant you one more grade."
Mr. Virtus Felton—H.S. Math II, Geometry, Solid Geometry-Trig.

"We can work it out."
Mr. Mark Brumbaugh—H.S. Math I, Alg.-Trig., Analytical Calculus

"Okay, class, now for subtraction."
Mr. John Wojtowicz—H.S. Math I, Alg. I, Alg.-Trig., Phys. Sc.

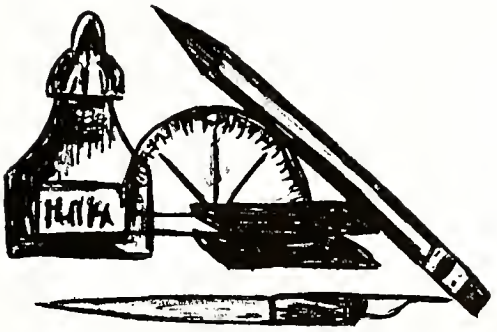
Changes in the Math Department provided students with improved programs. The combination of solid and plane geometry to form one course, as well as the combination of Algebra II and Trigonometry, gave students a wider range of mathematics which required fewer classes. This year marked the first offering of a second year of High School Arithmetic, thereby assisting students to make higher grades on employment or scholarship tests. Standardized tests were given at the beginning and end of the school year to determine whether students improved their competence of the subject. These and other improvements promoted and stimulated challenges for future mathematicians.



"This assignment is a reject!"
Mr. Richard Daffinee—H.S. Math I, Algebra I

"May I borrow your answer book, please?"
Mr. Andrew Dunn—H.S. Math II, Geometry

"I'll trade it for an apple."
Mrs. Muriel Goheen—H.S. Math I, Alg. I

SCIENCE MET CHALLENGES

"94, 739 rulers equal a long stick."
Mr. Howard Smith—Physical Science, Physics

The Science Department met the challenge of a modern society by offering opportunities for students to broaden their scientific knowledge. Chemistry was offered to sophomores who met certain scholastic requirements. Botanical and zoological specimens were grown in bathtubs and gallon jars in the tunnels beneath the school. An increase of greenhouse space will be available for students who wish to pursue advanced plant studies after the completion of the geodesic dome in the inner court. These changes and improvements surpassed many of those of previous years.

Chemistry I students learn that precise measurements are a necessity.

"Now I know there's a wing on here someplace."
Mr. Lloyd Johnson—Biology I, II, III

"Today we're going to learn the scientific theory behind Kool-Aid."
Mr. Norris Lockman—Chemistry I, II

"Let's see what fate the grade book holds."
Mr. Galon Miller—Biology I

LANGUAGES WERE FUN

Nearly half of Clay's students were involved in a foreign language program this year and it is expected than an even larger per cent will be involved next year. Representatives from the foreign language department visited the junior high and discussed with students what was involved in the different languages and which language would best be suited to that student as he considered his future and his plans for further education. Students in the second and third year French, Spanish, and German classes, along with those clubs, went on trips to Chicago where they enjoyed foreign foods and pastry after visits to museums.

"Now that I've mastered French and Spanish, English is my next goal."
Mrs. Sharon Besinger—French I, Spanish I

"Semper ubi, sub ubi."
Mrs. Frances Seward—Latin I, II, English I

"Eeenie, meenie, minie, mo . . ."

Mrs. Elizabeth Elmer—Spanish I, II, III

"Are you sure it's alright to make a dress out of a German flag?"
Miss Margaret Coen—German I, II

"Say it in French, not Slobovian."
Mrs. Jessie Schille—French I, II, III

BUSINESS SKILLS DEVELOPED

"He doesn't know his debits from his credits."
Mrs. Geraldine Walters—Typ. I, Bkp. I, Bus. Com., Nth.-Per. Typ.

"Would you believe this pencil is a miniature machine gun?"
Mr. Dan Dimich—Typ. I, Intro. to Bus., Off. Tr. I

"Too many teachers spoil the type!"
Mr. David Gleason—Bus. Relations, Typ. I, Intro. to Bus.
Mr. Thomas Saunders—Typ. I

"Two plus two equals four!"
Mrs. Virginia Kraus—Shh. II
Off. Tr. II

Co-operative Office Education, C.O.E., sponsored by the federal government, provided valuable experience for students in the Business Education Department. They attended classes in the mornings and worked in the afternoons during both semesters. The use of machines was introduced in the second semester of Office Training I. This additional training provided students with skills needed for future employment.

"F-f-f-space-y-y-y-space . . ."
Mrs. Mary Lou Brewer—Shh. I, Off. Tr. I

"But I wanted a desk job like yours!"

Mr. Edward Wood—Marketing and Distributive Education

FUTURE HELP FROM HOME EC

Preparing students for their future needs concerning personal and family living remained the main objective of the Home Economics Department. Four years ago marked the first classes in which boys participated in the activities of Home Ec. This year separate food classes for boys were available where they could acquire an appreciation of culinary art. Sewing projects advanced according to the application of the knowledge the students gained in their classes. The courses offered in this department provided the students with experience valuable to them in the future.

"You expect me to make a dress out of this."
Mrs. Lois Olson—Clothing I, II, III, Family Living

"Someday you'll make a wonderful wife."
Mrs. Carolyn Shidaker—Foods I, II

"A stitch in time saves nine."

PRECISION OF INDUSTRIAL ARTS

Varied courses in the Industrial Arts Department provided the students with experience for future occupations and personal use. The class, Machine Processing, offered for the first time foundry work under the leadership of Mr. Friedman who was new to the faculty. Projects such as drawing engine parts and building and launching of miniature rockets, added to the diversity of the vocational curriculum.

"If only I could make a straight line with this thing."
Mr. Richard Fullhart—Drafting II, III, Power Mechanics I

"You know you're not supposed to draw pictures like that in class."
Mr. Jack Lowe—Drafting I

"Now which button should I push?"
Mr. George Friedman—Machine Processing I, II, Vocational Machine Processing

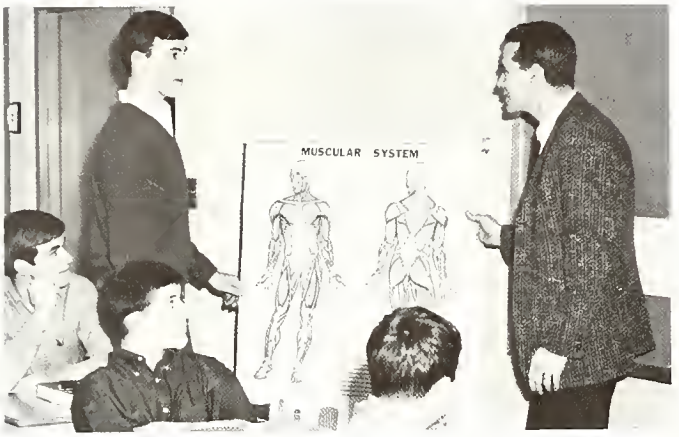
PHYS. ED. AIDED HEALTH

Two required courses, Health and Physical Education, were taught to Sophomores and any others who had not yet taken them. The varied subject matter provided the students with sufficient background to enable them to develop physically and to maintain good health.



"This is what you call a muscle, Jay."
Mr. Jim Warren—Health

"Early to bed, early to rise . . ."
Mr. Ray Emrick—Health

"Ready, aim, fire!"
Miss Joan Mitchell—Girls' Physical Education, Health

"There's that sock I've been looking for."
Mr. Thomas King—Boys' Physical Education, Health

MUSIC TO DRAW BY

"Follow the bouncing ball."
Mr. Richard Lovin—Band

A posed picture but an artistic smile.
Mrs. Ann Hamilton—Basic Art, Drawing and Graphics, Painting, Commercial Art, Ceramics and Sculpture, Creative Crafts

Commercial art, offered for the first time, attracted students who were interested in learning design, layout, and color combinations for interior decorating or other commercial fields. Music by the Band and Glee Clubs provided entertainment for the school and the community. Both music and art provided students with an outlet for self-expression, a means of relaxation, an attitude for appreciation, and an improvement of skills for the professional world of art and music.

"Let's all sing like the birdies sing!"
Mrs. Dorothy Powers—Harmony, Glee Club

"Naughty, naughty. I heard that wrong note."
Mrs. Artheda Spencer—Music Appreciation, Orchestra

SPECIAL SERVICES

The primary aim of the school nurse was to secure maximum health for every student. This required the co-operation and participation of the student, his parents, and teachers. During the year, Mrs. Helen Manuszak helped students who became ill in school, gave emergency first-aid, and counseled on health problems. Routine screening programs included tests for Tuberculosis and hearing and vision defects. Scheduled interviews with the school psychologist were other steps in obtaining maximum health for every student.

Mrs. Susan Vorwerk did an excellent job in the field of speech therapy during the first semester of the 1967–68 school year. She left with Clay's best regards and was replaced by Mrs. Nancy Todd.

Mr. Edward Hanyzewski was a welcome addition to Clay High. His special job was to supervise all study halls. This gave other teachers the time they needed for classroom teaching and preparation.

"Let's try it without the lisp."
Mrs. Susan Vorwerk—Speech Therapist

"Since when do you need a recommendation card for study hall?"
Mr. Edward Hanyzewski—Study Hall Supervisor

"What do you mean this is your mother calling?"
Mrs. Helen Manuszak—School Nurse

REFLECTIONS OF CLUBS

STUDENT COUNCIL LED THE WAY

Bob Wyllie, president, opens the floor for discussion.

Front Row: Debbie Ake, Leslie Peterson, Dawn Seybold, Bonnie Davis, Phil Rarick, Ann Bradfield, Mr. Walter Garrett. Second Row: Sue Greenwood, Pete Bradfield, Debbie Nosko, Leslie Kodba, Dianne Dimich, Jan Bartuska, Tom Leonakis. Third Row: Shelley Amor, Sue Keeler, Candi Seniff, Pam Thomas, Todd Maher, Lou Seniff, Laurie Bridge, Ed Kovatch, Duane Leeper. Fourth Row: Becky Carpenter, Kathy Wagner, Kathy Delaney, Robert Wyllie, Tom Fischer, Vince Carroll, Tom Greenway. Fifth Row: Kathy Jackson, Debbie Greenwood, Pat Zoller, Ruth Ake, Sue Miller, Kathy Granning, Sue Carl, Jenny Barber.

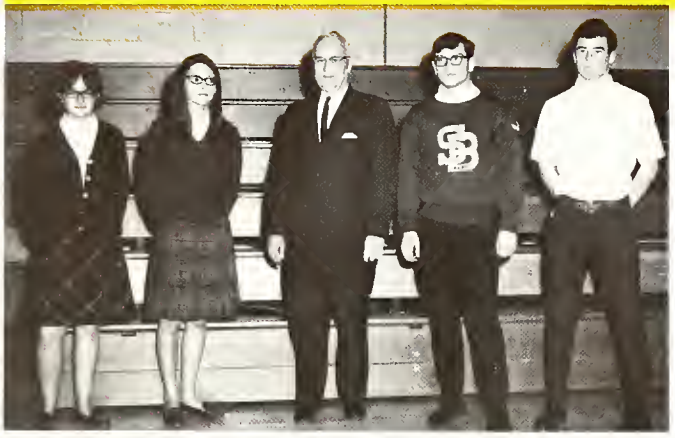
Candi Seniff, secretary; Pete Bradfield, vice-president; and Tom Leonakis, treasurer; review the minutes of the last meeting.

The Student Council consisted of representatives from each of the classes and officers selected by the student body. The leaders of the council's forty members were Bob Wyllie, president; Pete Bradfield, vice-president; Candi Seniff, secretary; and Tom Leonakis, treasurer. The main objective of the organization was to serve the school and community. The Council's donation of four hundred dollars enabled the English Department to buy needed materials.

Servicemen who graduated from Clay enjoyed letters and newspapers from home. An Easter Party and a Christmas party were given for the handicapped children in our community. The Student Council sponsored many social activities such as the Football and Basketball Homecomings, the Christmas Dance, the IBM Dance, Sadie Hawkins, and the Little 500.

Student Council members discuss "new business."

INDUCTION HIGHLIGHTED YEAR



National Honor Society Officers: Pam Thomas, Secretary; Joan Tabacznik, Treasurer; Mr. Galon Miller, advisor; Dave May, President; Brian Simcox, Vice President.

"Congratulations."

"I pledge myself to uphold . . . "

Liza Rudhman serves punch to Masi Ikuma and his host parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Clark at the reception following induction.

Members of the National Honor Society had to meet its four basic requirements. Eligibility was first determined on the basis of Scholarship. A senior was required to have a 3.1 average; a junior needed an average of 3.2. After induction, maintenance of a 3.0 average was a necessity. If the Scholarship requirement was met, then the future inducteee was judged on his past record of Citizenship, Leadership, and Service. The main goal of the Society members was to live up to the aims as stated in the Constitution: "to create an enthusiasm for Scholarship, to stimulate a desire to render Service, to promote worthy Leadership, and to encourage the development of Character in pupils of Clay High School."

REALITY OF REFLECTIONS

The Minuteman staff worked throughout the year assembling Reflections of '68. Mrs. Walters, advisor, checked the final copies of the pages. Activities included a soc hop at the beginning of the year and the distribution dance held on arrival of the yearbooks. Phil Lutes and Jay Greenwood attended the summer session of Indiana University High School Journalism Institute to prepare for their jobs as co-editors. Pictures were taken throughout the year by Jay Greenwood and his assistant, Dennis Gillen. Deadline rushes resulted in missed lunches, frustrations, aspirins, and sore fingers from typing.

STAFF PUBLISHED WEEKLY

Stephanie Maher and Miss O'Brien offered suggestions to Gary Stradtner and Jim Montague.

Art Heemer gave Mary Salyers and Jackie Hinchman copy to type for the deadline.

The Colonial Staff this year began to publish the paper weekly for the entire year. Under the leadership of Miss Eileen O'Brien the staff worked to meet thir deadlines during sixth hour. Each newspaper was filled with different types of articles ranging from educational to sports and gossip. Members of the staff interviewed different people for special articles. After the arrival of the papers, the staff distributed them to the students' lockers. Chuck Schoffner was awarded second place for news-writing. Robert Leinen was awarded first place in school life photography, and Mike Montgomery a third place. Louis Szabo won second place in the sports photography contest. These were awarded by The South Bend Tribune.

Y-TEENS SPONSORED PROGRAM

"To build leadership and character in every Clay girl" is the purpose of the Y-Teens. All the members were active in social and service projects. They sponsored the traditional "Mr. Irresistible Dance" and reactivated the "Can-Can" Dance, where a can of food and a quarter were required admission, and The J.B. Shellton Group provided music. The cans were put into baskets and distributed among four needy families of this area. For Thanksgiving they put on a program for the student body that featured numbers by the choir and Rev. Gary Hesser as speaker; Dawn Seybold wrote and narrated the skit for the assembly. At Christmas, in addition to providing baskets, they decorated the halls and purchased a small artificial tree for the office and a larger one for the foyer. Under the direction of Mrs. Geraldine Walters and Mrs. Mary Brewer, other contributions were made to A.F.S., Speech and Debate, and other worthwhile service projects. All of these help a Y-Teen reach her goal.

Dawn Seybold, program chairman, narrated the Y-Teens Thanksgiving skit.

"To promote leadership, strong character, fellowship, and service to the school and community" was the motto of the Hi-Y. The club sought to give the members a better outlook on life through self-development of body, mind, and spirit. The Hi-Y and sponsors, Mr. Gary Fry and Mr. Dan Dimich, worked closely with the Y-Teens in sponsoring many activities throughout the year. Hi-Y members also helped out at many other school functions, which included Mr. Huston Night, Christmas and Easter programs, car washes and a Jonah Fish Fry for P.T.A.

Hi-Y Officers: Doug Lindborg, Treasurer; Pete Bradfield, Vice-President; Tim Fick, President; Brian Simcox, Secretary.

SPIRIT COMMITTEE GAVE SKITS

Clay's school spirit climbed to a new height under the leadership of the Spirit Committee sponsored by Mr. Tom King and Miss Joan Mitchell, co-sponsors. The committee sponsored the "School Spirit Week" during which the homerooms were decorated with posters and signs. At various pep sessions the members put on skits about the coming game. Before the games the halls were often decorated to arouse spirit, and the students wore emblems sold by the spirit committee to encourage school spirit throughout Clay.

School Spirit Committee Officers: Beth Farekas, Vice-President; Jan King, Secretary; Tim Fick, Vice-President; Barb Bowie, President; Sandy Emrick, Treasurer.

The Glee Club, under the direction of Mrs. Dorothy Powers, put on different concerts for the public and the student body throughout the year. The Christmas Concert was one of the most outstanding programs ever given by the combined orchestra and choral groups and included selections from Handel's Messiah. This year the music department proudly sent ten representatives to the Solo and Ensemble Contest. The desire to participate in any of the three sections of our music department has grown tremendously. This year we had to have three different glee clubs in order to allow all students wishing to enter. This year the Swing Choir has enlarged the number of members from 20 to 28, therefore increasing their quality and volume.

Glee Club Officers: Pat McDonald, Treasurer; Dave May, President; Pete Miller, Vice-President; Linda Finger, secretary.

The largest of the language groups, the French Club, sponsored by Mrs. Schille and Mrs. Besinger, had a busy year. A trip to Chicago for lunch at a French restaurant highlighted the activities. Some of the members, along with other area language students, will participate in a six-week European tour, sponsored by Miss Coen. The agenda will include schooling in the mornings and excursions in the afternoons and on weekends.

Roger Snyder, Tom Bonadies, Jenny Barber, and Carol Hosler pose for a picture before they leave on the French Club trip.

Tam Heckel, Cindy Hunter, Larry Curtis, Carol Clawson, and Alice Pawlik look at a few souvenirs brought back from Europe. During the summer they will tour Europe with Miss Margaret Coen.

SPANISH CLUB ADOPTS ORPHAN

The Spanish Club with their sponsor, Mrs. Elizabeth Elmer, started the year off with a trip to Chicago Art Museum, which was climaxed with dinner at a Spanish restaurant. The club continued to support their orphan in Mexico. They also sent Christmas presents to an orphanage in Guadalajara Mexico. A. Christmas party was held in a member's house. The club also met at members' homes during the year.

Spanish Club Officers: Dawn Seybold, secretary-treasurer; John Tousley, president; Sue Carl, vice-president.

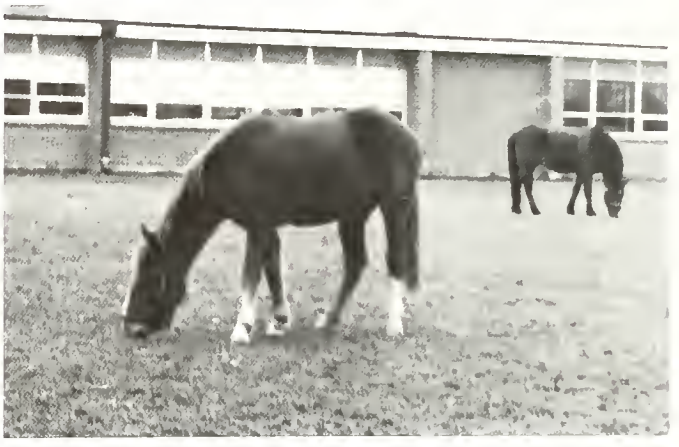
Mrs. Artheda Spencer advised a student.

The orchestra, under the direction of Mrs. Artheda Spencer, was increased from six to twelve members. This group became the third orchestral unit in Clay's history. They earned the recognition and appreciation of the student body as they accompanied the chorus in the Christmas concert. Later in the program they played the "Pastoral Symphony." Other events included the Music Department program during American Education Week, and the Pop Concert in the spring.

ART CLUB DISPLAYS WORK

Art Club Officers: Bonnie James, Secretary; Julie Himes, treasurer; Mrs. Hamilton, sponsor; Debbie Wagner, vice-president; Sandy Dincolo, president.

"To bring art into the lives of students" was the main goal of the art club. Trips to Chicago and local art galleries by the advanced art students promoted their interests in art. With this experience, and the help of their sponsor, Mrs. Hamilton, they built portable display units to use for their art exhibits.



Rover and Lightfoot, the Art Club's live models.

Front Row: Bill Stopczynski, Cheryl Kinzie, Dennis Duncan, Sherry Santos, Stephen Collins, Jeri Green, Bonnie James, Debbie Wagner, Sponsor, Mrs. Hamilton. Debate members prepared to leave for Purdue.

Clay's debate team won a majority of their debates this year. They defeated schools from all over the state. A requirement of 25 points was needed to be in National Forensic League. This was the goal of all the members of the Speech and Debate club. A clinic was held at Purdue and members took part in speech and debate workshops. The debaters met after school and evenings preparing for contests.

Members registered for workshops at Purdue.

BIOLOGY AND WRITING CLUBS

Biology Club: Sue Cook, Greg Fassler, Kathy Keene, Lynn Lee, Mr. Lloyd Johnson, Bob Whitmer, Gary Nickerson.

The Creative Writing Club, nicknamed the "Tories," was under the sponsorship of Mr. Frederic Dreves. Meetings were held on Wednesdays twice a month after school. Matt Farner, Editor; Lynn Burns, Secretary; Jacki Schreiner, Assistant Editor; and the 20 members of the club published the works of Clay students. Through this publication good examples of prose, poetry, and other features were shown.

Mr. Lloyd Johnson, sponsor, directed the work of the Biology Club. A dome was built in the court by interested biology students. It was used as a tropical greenhouse and a reporting station for the United States Weather Bureau. Others worked in the tunnels growing algae and hydra in bathtubs. Officers were: Gary Nickerson, President; Bob Whitmer, Vice-President; Sue Cook, Secretary-Treasurer.

CO-OP WORKERS

Business Co-op: Judy Morningstar, Sherry Rhodes, Cindy Terruso, Debbie Georgie, Linda Short, Jay August, Mrs. Virginia Kraus, Dora Moss.

The Distributive Education Club was organized to further develop a respect for education in marketing and distribution. The '68 officers were Jerry Hunt, president; Kathy Bergman, vice-president; Norma Hodgson, secretary; Maureen Harvey, treasurer. During the year, money-making projects included a bake sale and the Charles King program. Members took a trip to the Merchandising Mart and other stores in Chicago with their new sponsor, Miss Marsha Snideman.

The Co-Op program was set up for students to go to school a half day and work in an office the other half. It gave them the opportunity to earn while learning. After interviewing applicants, the employers selected the students according to their abilities, attitudes, and ambitions. The students met daily in a related training class to discuss the gap between school, the job, and all areas related to office work.

FIRST NIV CONFERENCE

Clay Harriers on their way to winning 4 of top 5 places against LaSalle.

The 1967 Clay Harriers were the winners of the first cross country title in the newly formed Northern Indiana Valley Conference. Under the leadership of Coach Jim Warren the Harriers were undefeated in the league and lost one non-conference game. The season record was an impressive 13 wins and one loss. Early in the season Vince Carroll broke the school record with a time of 10:08 for two miles. At midseason Ken Wisniewski broke that record with a time of 10:02. The Harriers placed second in the city meet by placing five runners in the top 20 in a field of over a hundred. They went on to place third in the sectional and eleventh in the regional.

MATMEN PINNED NIVC TITLE

The wrestling team's outstanding achievement for the 1968 season was the Northern Indiana Valley Conference championship. This was the second Conference Title to come to Clay this year. The championship was won by beating LaSalle 22 to 17, and the win brought the conference record to 5 wins, 0 losses. Under the instruction of Coach David Gleason and Assistant Coach Richard Daffinee, the team had an overall record of 8 wins and 4 losses. In the City Meet Clay placed 7th and in the Penn Invitational placed 4th. Recognition for wrestling went to Larry Staner for most valuable, and Mike Rupel, sportsmanship.

Above: Matmen and coaches waited tensely as Mike Couch wrestled the deciding weight at the LaSalle Match. Below: Victory was near as team watched the clock. Left: Victory and Conference Title were secured and team swarmed the mat.

The 1967–68 Colonial Basketball season though plagued by many losses, included two very "sweet" victories. The first came against long-time rival, St. Joseph. The Colonials ended St. Joseph's ten-game winning streak with a 54–52 upset. The second high point came at the end of the season, when the team beat Mishawaka by a score of 69–49 in the first round of the sectionals. Ken Wisniewski was voted center on the Sectional "First Team."

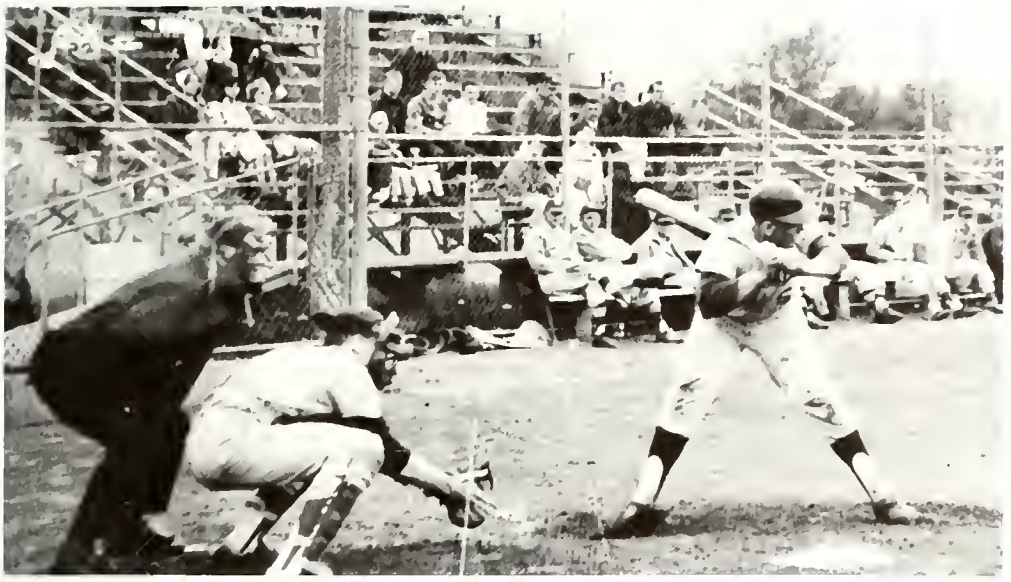
Baseball Regional, Sectional, and Michigan City Invitational Trophies.

A new era in sports emerged at Clay when the 1967 Clay baseball team, under Coach Jim Reinebold, went farther up the ladder of victory than any other sport in Clay's history. The baseball team advanced to the state semi-finals to become Clay's first team to go this far. The Colonials began their drive, and won the sectional by beating Washington 10–0, Adams 3–0, and St. Joseph 4–2. Clay was the host school at both the sectional and regional. In the regional, Clay beat Jackson 2–1 and in the final round, beat Goshen 4–2. The Colonials moved on to semi-state where the eventual State Champion, La Porte, beat the Colonials in a 1–0 thriller. The win over Adams in the sectional marked the 200th win for Coach Reinebold in 12 years in baseball. An annual baseball clinic in the spring, followed by a trip to a warmer climate, prepared the team for the rough season. This year Coach Reinebold hoped to bring the East Chicago Semi-state Tourney to South Bend. The winning tradition was begun and will continue.

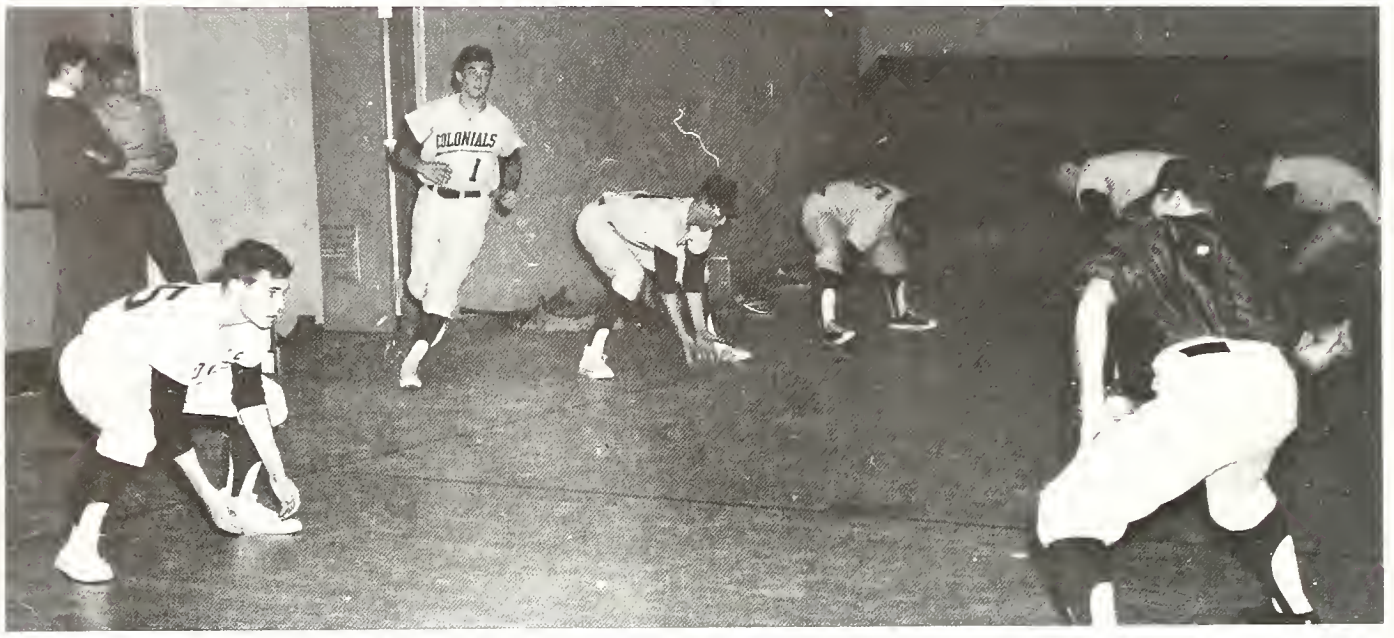


Jim Campbell dug in at the plate.

Greg Ivins swung for the long one.

Mike Borkowski followed through on a solid hit.

GOOD COACHING + HARD WORK



Baseball players worked hard at practice in order to duplicate winning season, as Coach Reinebold showed them the correct way to field.

Coach Jim Reinebold and Assistant Coach Glen Neely discussed batting skills.

GIRLS IN SPORTS

It no longer was completely a man's world in the field of sports at Clay High. The girls stepped in on wrestling as the Matmaids assisted the wrestling team by keeping the score. The Freshman girls were active by supporting the freshman teams with cheerleaders. Other girls started the "volley" ball rolling in January, when they organized an Interschool Volleyball Team. Practice was every Monday night at 3:30 in preparation for the first game March 5.

Freshman Cheerleaders: Front: Lori Meyer Back Shelley Amor, Kathy Wilson, Sherry Amor.

Matmaids: Debbie Ake, Bev Stucker, Sue Wever, Daphne Rudhman, Sylvia Malohn, Peggy Spaid, Sandy Smith, Patty Thomas, Kathy Wagner, Julie Wilder, Sharon Huston, Bonnie Blakeman, Kathy VanDusen, Nancy Mock, Sharon Carter, Dee Richey.

CHEERLEADERS RAISED SPIRIT

Varsity Cheerleaders: Stephanie Maher, Jenny Barber, Cheryl Wilson, Gail Huckins, June Miller.

Nine of the cutest, noisiest, and proudest girls represented Clay as cheerleaders. Clad in their new gold and white uniforms, the five varsity cheerleaders created enthusiasm both at games and in the school. The four junior varsity or B-Team cheerleaders also assisted the varsity members by cheerleading at the B-Team games.

June Miller, captain of the varsity cheerleaders, assisted cheerleader sponsor Miss Joan Mitchell with the four B-Team members.

These girls have done much to boost the morale of the teams and the enthusiasm of the fans.

B-Team Cheerleaders: Kneeling: Molly Maher. Standing: Dawn Seybold, Debra Rokely, Leslie Peterson.

Below: Enthused cheerleaders scampered through another cheer.

The cindermen were trained by Coach Jack Lowe, after Coach Meredith Huston became ill. Early in the season the team members practiced at Notre Dame field house. With the coming of spring, practice for all of the team was moved to the Clay track. Ten lettermen anchored the underclass runners. many of them experienced. Hopes were high for the team to take the school's third NIVC championship.

Don Hartzell vaulted up to the pole vault bar.

Greg Haney swung over the bar.

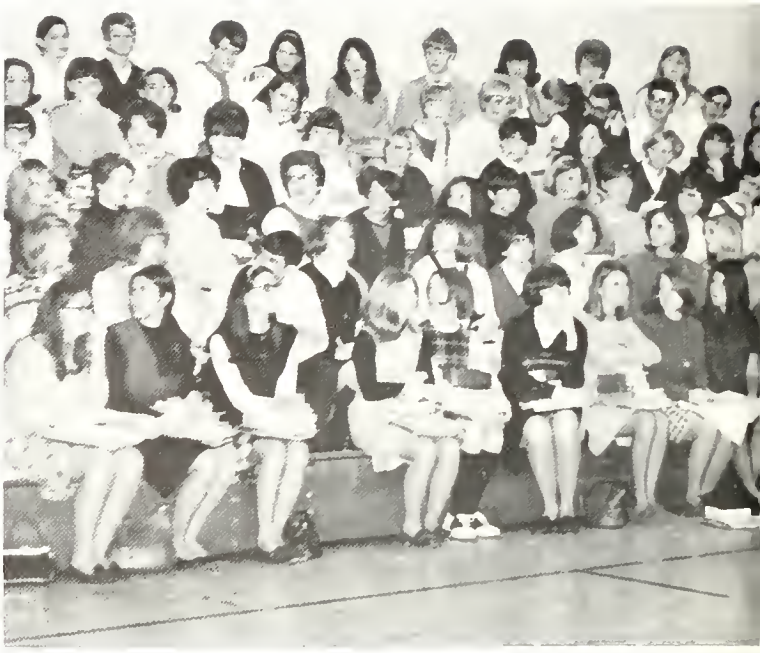
Ron Sanders floated downward after clearing the bar.

Runners took off for long and exausting two-mile run.

REFLECTIONS OF INDIVIDUALS

SENIORS '68

President Sue Keeler and Sponsor Mr. Fry, laugh about class notes.



Sue and Mr. Fry try and hold

"To dream the impossible dream,
To reach the unreachable star,
This is our quest." . . . Class of '68

This was the motto, the song was "The Impossible Dream," the flower was the rose, and the colors were jade and pearl. The powder puff football game, selling CHS pins, and carnations for homecoming were projects to raise money for the school gift. The Class Party at Morris Park Country Club, March 2, 1968, highlighted the year. With baccalaureate and commencement behind us, we now go in quest of our unreachable star.

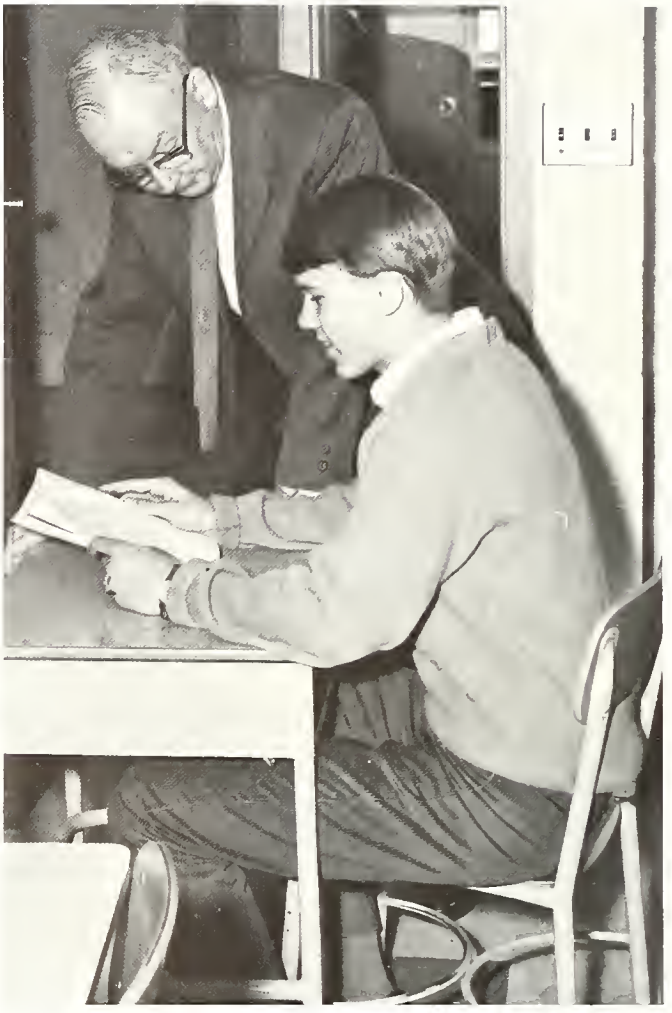
CLASS OF '69

Two years of preparation was climaxed as prom anticipation grew and finally became a reality on May 18, 1968, with "Oriental Springtime." President Steve Klemz, Vice-President Rick Shriner, Secretary Leslie Peterson, and Treasurer Stephanie Stroud, like every year's juniors, were burdened with the responsibility of organizing, completing, and financing the prom.

Concessions were sold at football and basketball games. When weather permitted, car washes were held at nearby gas stations. These projects, and those of the past two years, helped to finance the prom.



Mr. Andrew Dunn, sponsor, discussed plans with President Steve Klemz.

Vice-president Rick Shriner and President Steve Klemz.

Juniors earn money for prom

CLASS OF '70

Vince Carroll, treasurer, and Mike Huddlestun, president, confer with Mr. Harbaugh on another class project.

Kathy Jacksan, secretary, and Pam Nelson, vice president, wait for a conference on student activities.

The Sophomores encountered many new experiences this past year. They earned more distinction as they took much pleasure in giving this year's freshmen a rough time, just as last year's sophomores did to them. The Class of 1970 were the proud sponsors of bake sales, car washes, and the sticker project, all of which earned money for their class treasury. Perhaps one of the most exciting experiences the sophomores had was the excitement of making the trip to Landesman's to order their school rings. The sophomores had a year they could be proud of and looked forward with enthusiasm to the day when they would carry the title of Jolly Juniors.

Sophomores proudly chose class rings.

CLASS OF '71

Sponsor Mr. Glen Neely gives advice to president Phil Bonadies.

The Freshman Class of 1971 came to Clay High School filled with enthusiasm for what lay ahead. They started off the year with the election of class officers. As the year progressed, the Class of '71 began the tradition of having a frosh cheerleading squad which proved to be valuable to the freshman basketball team. Although short in stature this year's freshman class was the largest one in the history of Clay High School. Their many experiences as high school freshmen will guide them well in the future.

Below: A typical freshmen classroom.

Vice-President Steve Ryan, President Phil Bonadies.

Secretary Denise Butterbaugh, Treasurer Judy Granning.

EDITORIAL REFLECTION

Phil Lutes

Jay Greenwood

To each class, the end of a school year means something different. To the underclassmen it means another year closer to graduation. To the seniors, it means the end of one life and the beginning of a new and different one. Every person can remember things that made 1967–68 the way it was.

A few special thank-yous are needed for the completion of this book. A very special thanks goes to Mrs. Walters, our yearbook advisor, without whose help the yearbook would probably still be in the printing stages, and to DeGroff's Studios for their work with the taking and developing of our pictures.

We of the MINUTEMAN staff hope that we have presented the highlights of the year in clear images which will always be happily remembered.
